EXCERPT

Mogaka is twenty-three years old and studying Human resource at the local University. His girlfriend has dumped him for his friend. The girlfriend has been complaining that Mogaka does not know how to care for himself; he is disorganized and does not think through his words. He told a friend he was tired of wiping his tears and caring for himself. He does not know how to take care of his problems. He has been drinking too much with his friends and is often left in the bar. He is taken advantage of by the bar attendants who steal his money. He says he is not handsome and financially advantaged as his male friends.
