INSTRUCTIONS TO THE PERSON ACTING AS THE CLIENT

1. Rehearse the following excerpt which captures the content of what you will present to the counselor in a simulated situation where you act as a client.
2. You have 10 minutes to rehearse this excerpt and present the issue to the counsellor

Franklin is 25 years old. A Module 3 student at Peperusha Technical Training Institute taking a course in Mechanical and Electrical Engineering. He is a second born in a family of five. For the last two terms Franklin has been going through a lot. He was worried because his parents keep on fighting over one issue or another. During the holidays he overheard his mother sharing with Aunt Dolly that “were it not for my children, I would quit this marriage and go abroad. All I ever wanted is for my sons to grow up with a father, but I feel like giving up.” Frankline was shocked, he felt rejected and angry with his mother for blaming him for her tribulations. Since then, Franklin has joined bad company of friends whom they drink alcohol with. He forgets to attend most of his classes and hardly attempts any other assignment given in class. He was referred to the guidance and counselling department by the Head of Department.
